

24 July 1951

The Honorable James Bruce

Dear Mr. Bruce:

I wish to acknowledge and to thank you for your letter of July 18th in regard to [redacted] Having met him once or twice in the past and having recently talked with him in this office, I am also impressed with his qualifications for work in this Agency. Accordingly, I recommended him to the head of one of the divisions of the Agency and am hopeful that he will be employed here in the near future or when his military service is terminated, depending on his own preference.

Very sincerely,

William H. Jackson
Deputy Director of
Central Intelligence
